The Call to Worship

Chris Fuller

With true hearts, assured of our faith, let's grab hold of all our faithful God is promising!

We're meeting to encourage one another.

Today is the right time to provoke one another to love and good deeds!

This is the time for us to rejoice, for Jesus the Christ offers forgiveness and peace to all!
So let us worship the Lord, our God, who remembers our sin no more.

Psalms 16

Emily Brumley

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

I say to the Lord, “You are my Lord;
I have no good apart from you.”

As for the holy ones in the land, they are the noble ones in whom is all my delight.

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

Those who choose another god multiply their sorrows;
their drink offerings of blood I will not pour out or take their names upon my lips.

The Lord is my chosen portion and my cup;
you hold my lot.

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

The boundary lines have fallen for me in pleasant places;
I have a goodly heritage.

I bless the Lord, who gives me counsel;
in the night also my heart instructs me.

I keep the Lord always before me;

because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

Therefore my heart is glad, and my soul rejoices;
my body also rests secure.

For you do not give me up to Sheol or let your faithful one see the Pit.

You show me the path of life.

In your presence there is fullness of joy;
in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Protect me, O God, for in you I take refuge.

This is the Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

“He dwells tenderly in our midst.

He draws us to him in the bonds of love.

He stays with us and calls us to take the path to heaven to dwell with him.”

A Reading from the New Testament	Hebrews 10:11-18	Caitlin Childers Brown
And every priest stands day after day at his service, offering again and again the same sacrifices that can never take away sins. But when Christ had offered for all time a single sacrifice for sins, "he sat down at the right hand of God," and since then has been waiting "until his enemies would be made a footstool for his feet." For by a single offering he has perfected for all time those who are sanctified. And the Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after saying, "This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord: I will put my laws in their hearts, and I will write them on their minds," and he adds, "I will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more." Where there is forgiveness of these, there is no longer any offering for sin. This is the Word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.
